In celebration of their demobilization as a part of Uncle Sam's army the S. A. T. C. army officers and members of the Normal faculty spent an hour or more in the mess hall at supper last night around tables filled with good things—a "farewell feed"—with speeches by President Richardson, Lieutenants Kaercher and Burns and others that made the boys feel like wishing the signing of the armistice might have been put off for awhile

In his talk to the members of the Corps President Richardson said he knew the lessons they had learned in discipline and in the things that came from close association would be remembered and would be productive of good results. He expressed pleasure in being able to have them at the Normal and the real enjoyment it had been to look personally after their welfare with assurance they would find him ready at any time to "go over the top" with them in any good service. Three cheers and a tiger, together with a number of suspiciously moist eyes as President Richardson sat down left no doubt of the love and esteem in which he is held by the members of the S. A. T. C.

Barring delays from one cause and another the boys are expected to have their final discharge papers by tonight when most of them will leave for their homes. Some eight or ten have expressed the intention of continuing as students at the Normal.

An impressie ceremony marked the demobilization of the unit this morning when the men were drawn up in company formation just outside the Normal building to receive their official discharge. As each man's name was called by the army officers, he stepped forward and after exchange of military salute was handed the much prized paper.

Lieut. Geo. H. Kaercher expects to return to his home at Pottstown, Pa., to spend the holidays before receiving his discharge while Lieut. Cecil V. Burns will spend Christmas vacation with his parents at Owensboro, Ky., after which he will report to the commanding officer at Plattsburg, N. Y. training camp.

MRS. FRED R. WOLFERS DEAD

Prominent Young Matron Is Victim of Influenza.—Funeral Monday and Burial at Hopkins.

Mrs. Theodosia Wolfers, the wife of Fred R. Wolfers of this city died at 10:30 o'clock last night at her home 1019 North Oak street. Mrs. Wolfers' death was due to pneumonia which followed an attack of influenza.

The funeral services will be held Monday morning on the porch at the home, conducted by Dr. Gilbert S. Cox pastor of the First Methodist church. The body will be taken to Hopkins and interred in the Wolfers' family burial lot.

Mrs. Wolfers was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jackson of Hardy, Ark. She was born March 13, 1893. She was married to Mr. Wolfers October 26, 1916. Beside her husband and parents, Mrs. Wolfers is survived by three brothers, Lloyd Jackson, in the naval radio service at Cambridge, Mass.; Aubrey, with the S. A. T. C. at Batesville, Ark.; Homer Jackson and a sister, Pauline, living at home with the parents.

Mrs. Wolfers came to this city a young bride and made many sincere friends during her residence. She was a graduate of the University of Missouri and finished her musical education at Stephens College, Columbia. While at school she met a number of college girls from this city with whom she became friends and it was on subsequent visits here and at Hopkins that she and her future husband became acquainted. She was a member of the Twentieth Century club and was one of the most prominent young matrons of the city in club and social circles.

SLEEP FOE TO 'FLU'

LIVE NORMALLY, STAY HOME AT NIGHT, DOCTORS ADVISE

DONT FEAR THE DISEASE

Fear and Worry Reduces Bodily Resistance.—Not Agreed That It Is a Crowd Disease.

With hundreds of health experts attending sessions of the American Public Health Association's meeting in Chicago this week, none claims to have found the active agent in the influenza epidemic, according to the correspondent of the Kansas City Star, and while it is admitted by the highest authorities the medical profession is fighting in the dark, certain rules for the individual, to prevent contraction of the disease have been tacitly agreed upon.

The rules came from different sections of the country and developed through individual experiences of health officials. They were gleaned from papers covering the experiences of army and navy health officials and of scores of public health officers and practicing physicians.

Briefly, the rules recommended unofficinlly are:

Get plenty of sleep—nine hours every night if possible.
Live normally, meaning for each person to live his normal life; to do nothing that would have a tendency to change his physical resistance.
Eat moderately—enough, but not more than is necessary.
Stay at home at night.
Avoid crowds as much as possible, in or out of doors.
Avoid worry—it reduces physical resistance.
Don't fear the disease—that has the same effect as worry.
Keep the hands away from the face and mouth.
Eat from dishes that have been steamed or washed in boiling water.
Avoid ray milk.
Avoid the use of medicines that contain opiates.
Keep the intestinal tract open.
Take every precaution to prevent a cold.

Virtually every authority has placed stress upon the matter of rest as a preventive measure, also upon normal living.

"By normal living," said and army health officer, "we mean the daily life the person has been living. For instance, if a man is in the habit of taking a drink of liquor every day, let him continue to take the drink, but not increase it. If he smokes three or four or five cigars a day, continue it. Any change of that character in daily living brings about a physical change that may throw down the bars for influenza."

Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner of Chicago, illustrated the psychological effect of fear. He told of a large Chicago institution through which the epidemic was sweeping. Vaccination was determined upon and administered to those who had not contracted the disease.

"Immediately there was a remarkable decrease in number of new cases," he said. "It couldn't have been the physical effect of the vaccine. It had not had time to do its work. But those inoculated had faith in the treatment. The element of fear was removed. It is a well known fact fear reduces bodily resistance to disease."

The general ban has not been recommended. It is not even agreed influenza is a "crowd disease."

NO NIGHT CHURCH SERVICES

Pastors Unite With Health Authorities to Prevent Influenza Spread.

At a meeting yesterday of the ministers of the various churches it was decided that the Sunday night services tomorrow night would be dispensed with. The ministers stated the decision to hold no night service was due to a desire to co-operate with the health authorities in further checking the influenza epidemic which now seems to be on the wane. All other services at the various churches will be held as usual.

HEAR BOOZE CASE MONDAY

Police Believe They Have "the Goods" on Giles Burris, Charged with Violation of Liquor Law.

Giles Burris, charged with violation of the local option law, will be given a hearing in Mayor W. O. Garrett's court Monday at one o'clock. Burris announced yesterday that he was not ready for trial and after securing an attorney made an effort to get bond, but at a late hour today had been unsuccessful.

According to the police they have a pretty plain case against Burris, brot about by the arrest and subsequent confession of Robert Thomas. Suspicion had been directed toward Burris for sometime, the police say, and repeated visits by various parties to Burris' rooms over the building on North Main street appeared to give further evidence that something was amiss. Thursday morning Burris, Bert Martin and Thomas were seen to go up stairs to Burris' rooms and a short time later when Thomas reappeared on the street he was arrested and a bottle of liquor found on him. He pleaded guilty to "giving away whiskey" and after a maximum fine and sentence by Mayor Garrett, decided he would tell where he got it.

His writen confession implicated Burris and Martin. The latter being out on parole was arrested and when brought before the Mayor and Thomas denied all knowledge or connection with the transaction. Yesterday shortly afternoon the police arrested Burris at his rooms and are also said to have found a quantity of whiskey.

Thomas still adheres to his story of purchasing booze from Burris and recounted several occasions when he had made purchases at the rate of $5 per quart. He will be the prosecuting witness in the case. Burris has secured legal counsel and promises to fight the case to a finish.

MAY KEEP THEIR UNIFORMS

When Discharged It Becomes Soldier's Property, Says Baker—Issues Necessary Order.

Washington, Dec. 14. — Secretary Baker informed Chairman Dent of the House military committee today that the War Department had decided that all discharged soldiers may permanently retain the uniform and overcoat they wear when mustered out. Mr. Dent prepared a bill embodying the necessary authority. Previously the department had planned to have the clothing returned to the government three months after a soldier's discharge.

50,000 U.S. CITIZENS

NATURALIZED WHILE FIGHTING UNDER STARS AND STRIPES

FOLLOW THEM TO FRANCE

Bureau of Naturalization Made Special Effort to Extend Privileges of Citizenship to All Foreigners.

When our armies return from the war there will be in the ranks of the victorious soldiers 50,000 or more new citizens of the United States. This country will spell "home" to tens of thousands of men who were aliens when they sailed away to fight for the country that is now their own, for in the midst of battles the Bureau of Naturalization of the Department of Labor has reached out to extend the privileges of citizenship to all foreigners who were defending the principles of liberty under the Stars and Stripes.

Louis Weinberger, sent across seas to carry out the government's naturalization program, returned recently after three months of hard work, for it was his duty to follow up 50,000 of the 150,000 naturalization blanks especially prepared for the war emergency.

According to the plan worked out by the bureau, in conference with the Judge Advocate General, a scheme to expedite the usual process of naturalization was made practicable and legal. The required formalities were reduced to the simplest terms. The preliminary declaration of intention was waived and it was made possible to issue the final papers without any lapse of time. The applicant could execute one paper in duplicate, together with affidavits, and take the oath of allegiance—all in short order.

The first serious problem was to reach all the aliens in the distribution of the blanks, but this was soon solved by sending the papers through brigade headquarters and thus reaching the company units. In many cases extra blanks were sent for, and so far the exact number actually used has not been obtained. Although naturalization was not in any way compulsory, it was soon evident that there was a general desire to attain citizenship wherever foreigners were serving, and that was everywhere in the armies of the United States. Among the applications nearly every nation on the globe was represented. Because of the haste with which so many soldiers were made citizens, however, it must not be supposed that the bars requiring that men accepted by the nation should be worthy of enrollment as Americans were let down. Owing to military regulations, each man's history had been carefully tabulated and then the men who were making the world safe for democracy belonged to a class that was as a whole trustworthy.

One of the interesting phases of this wholesale naturalization enterprise had to do with alien enemies. Even these who could prove their loyalty were entitled to citizenship, and a number of Austrians and Germans took the oath of allegiance to the flag. Owing to the efficiency of the Bureau of Military Intelligence, there was little danger of mistakes in the admission of undesirable men.

DIES UPON ARRIVAL HOME

William Mozingo Returns From Sanatarium This Morning, Died at Noon.—Funeral at Home.

William Mozingo died at one o'clock this afternoon at his home, 1402 East Halsey street. Mr. Mozingo had been at the Mayo sanatarium at Rochester, Minn., for some time and failed to improve. Accompanied by his wife he returned to Maryville this morning.

The funeral services will be held at the home at three o'clock Monday afternoon conducted by the Rev. W. C. Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist church. The Woodmen of the World, of which Mr. Mozingo was a member, will be in charge for the funeral.

Mr. Mozingo was 44 years old. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Mary Frost of this city, three young children, Verna, Freddie and Willie, Jr., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mozingo, two sisters, Mrs. Bert Sharp of Ft. Madison, Ia., and Mrs. Chas. Partridge, living east of the city, and two brothers, Frank Mozingo of Dennison, Wash., and James Mozingo of Maryville.

BAPTIST AT BOARD MEET

Will Launch Five Year Campaign for Better Church Buildings and Equipment in Nodaway, Holt and Atchison Counties.

Rev. W. C. Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist church, Capt. Charles Hyslop and I. E. Tebow were at Bigelow yesterday attending a district executive board meeting of the Baptist churches of Nodaway, Holt and Atchison counties.

The most important part of the session was the starting of a five year campaign to help all Baptist churches in the district to secure church buildings in keeping with the community in which they are located and to be properly equipped for the prosecution of modern church work.

Miss Eva Davis, secretary of the Nodaway county Sunday School Association, has recently completed a large survey map, showing the location of all churches in the three counties in connection with the Northwest Baptist District Association work.

The next quarterly meeting will be held at Rock Port Jan. 22-23.

A COUNCIL MEETING FRIDAY

Adjourned Session Last Night Made Necessary by Postponement of Commercial Club Meeting.

At an adjourned session of the city council last night, a further adjournment was held until Friday night, Dec. 20. The adjournment was taken at the request of the Commercial Club, as it was expected a petition asking for a special election to vote on changing to commission government would be presented. The calling off of the meeting of the Commercial Club which was to precede the council session, made a second adjournment necessary.

It is believed that conditions within a few days will be such that a meeting may be announced when a general discussion will be had concerning the proposed commission form.

CAPTAIN BELL RELEASED.

Wired Maryville Folks He Would Be Home Before Christmas.

James B. Robinson received a message at noon today from Capt. Charles T. Bell at Washington, D. C., that he had received his discharge from the army medical service and would be home sometime before Christmas. When Capt. Bell was transferred from Camp McArthur, Texas to Allentown, Pa., he was accompanied by Mrs. Bell and their young son and they will return to Maryville together.

ARMISTICE IS EXTENDED.

London, Dec. 14. — The armistice granted Germany has been extended for one month to January 17, 1919, and will be further prolonged until the conclusion of preliminary peace, subject to the consent of the Allies, according to authoritative information from Treves today.

WILSON WOULD MAKE HUNS PAY

TELLS FRENCH THAT GERMANY MUST BE PUNISHED FOR THE CRIMES OF THE WAR

ALL PARIS TURNS OUT--GREAT DEMONSTRATION

Is Met at Station by Distinguished Party Headed by President Poincaire.—Thundering Cheers From Immense Crowd in Greeting.

Paris, Dec. 14.—"I will surely look upon the ruin wrought by the armies of the Central empires with the same repulsion and deep indignation that they stir in the hearts of the men of France and Belgium, and I appreciate as you do, the necessity of such action in the final setlement of the issues of the war as will not only rebuke such acts of terror and spoilation, but will make men everywhere understand that they can not be ventured upon without certainty of just punishment." These were the words today of President Wilson in his reply to President Poincaire's formal welcome at a lunch eon at Elysees Palace. President Wilson declared the questions raised by the war must be settled in such a way as to insure the future peace of the world.

Paris, Dec. 14.—Two minutes before ten o'clock this morning booming guns from Mont Valerian on the outskirts of Paris announced that President Wilson's train was traversing the fortifications marking the outer limits of the city. Paris listened breathlesaly, then exclaimed, "He has come." It was a salute of welcome to the great American statesman who came to Europe to attend the peace conference. When the train arrived at the depot thundering cheers from the crowds in the streets outside echoed and billowed about the station. The station plaza was jammed wih people who waived flags and mingled their shouts with he cries of "Long Live Wilson," "Welcome to the Messenger of Peace."

The fashionable restaurants had opened an hour earlier than usual to accommodate the throngs, but many carried bread, jam and wine to the station to eat while awaiting the arrival of the train. The weather is fine and vast crowds line the boulevards all along the line.

The demonstration of greeting will linger long in the memory of Paris and of President and Mrs. Wilson. The whole city was declared out of flags and it seemed that every person in the vast throng wore American flags and dealers ransacked their stocks to supply the demand.

A distinguished party greeted President Wilson at the station. It included President and Mrs. Poincaire, Premier Clemenceau, a distinguished galaxy of ambassadors, ministers, army and navy officers mostly accompanied by their wives. The entire course leading from the station was lined on both sides with French soldiers. The residence of Prince Murat, whose home President and Mrs. Wilson will occupy during their stay in Paris was all in readiness when they arrived there. The President was keenly interested in everything that he saw on a ride through the city. The grounds of the Murat residence are patrolled by armed guards, the secret service and the police while nearby were American secret service agents and plain clothes men.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Sunday; somewhat colder tonight.

Soldiers Memorial

My choice for a suitable soldiers' and sailors' memorial in honor of Nodaway county boys is:

1. A community building or "Hut."
2. A public park.
3. Tree lined roadways.

President Wilson is nearly to France, Theodore still sputtering and the Government still stands.

Having won the fight to make the world safe for Democracy, the next step is to make democracy in Europe safe for the world.

With the War Industries Board going out of business the first of the year, the Food Administration taking its hands off the dinner table, the Fuel Administration abandoning the zone system and closing up its affairs, and with the ban lifted from the sugar bowl, Santa Claus is so generous with freedom that we may well restrain ourselves lest we develop a real Bolshevik Christmas.

Washington has a firm of "experts" that styles itself "promoters of loveliness." They are neither gardeners nor florists though they do turn out some very agreeable looking Roses, Pansies, Violets, etc.

The Rev. Mr. Wilfley, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church of this city, has been acting as chaplain of the national House of Representatives during the illness of the regular chaplain, Dr. Couden, recently. He is a brother of Geo. L. Wilfley of Maryville. He has a straight forward delivery and delivers a clean cut, forceful prayer with all due respect to brevity. The latter feature is always popular with the membership when applied to prayers.

It is not believed that soldiers can be maintained by the United States in Europe in great numbers more than four months beyond the signing of the peace treaty without additional legislation. The law providing for the national army and governing enlistments subsequently provided that their term of service should not last beyond four months following the declaration of peace. It is estimated that there are not more than 40,000 of the regular army left who were enlisted prior to the passage of the act limiting the period of service. This means that, if it is the purpose to keep a large body of men in Europe for any considerable length of time, more legislation will be necessary.

Thoughtful republican leaders who have been ruminating on the net results of the late election have come to the conclusion that they were stung. Of course it was nice to get control of Congress and a lot of state legislatures but, when they have completed an inventory of the disagreeable difficulties that have come into their possession, they are not so enthusiastic over their great victory. It was very comfortable to be in the minority and criticise the acts of the majority without stint and without responsibility. In so doing they could profit by all the dissatisfaction growing out of legislation for which some one else must be held responsible and thus strengthen their position for the presidential campaign in 1920. Some have begun to think now that they overdid themselves and pulled the pillars of promise down on their heads. With the end of the war and the coming of peace, a general reversal of effort is necessitated. We must cease war efforts and get back to peace. A great work of reconstruction is ahead and with it some exceedingly important and embarrassing problems. What will we do with the railroads? What will we do with the high cost of living? What will we do with the wage question? What will we do with the telegraph and telephone lines? What will we do with the military question? How will we raise the money to pay off the national debt? These and a score of other questions must be met and disposed of within the next two years and they carry vast possibilities for discord and political disaster. On these questions republicans are no better united than are democrats, but they must shoulder the responsibility for legislation in the next Congress and many of the wiser ones wish it were not so.

"HE HAS DONE HIS DUTY"

W. H. Culver Receives Word His Son, Thomas, Will Soon Be Discharged at Camp McArthur, Texas.

W. H. Culver of Maryville, whose son Thomas Culver, is at Base Hospital No. 165, Camp McArthur, Waco, Tex., has received the following letter from the young man's commanding officer: Base Hospital No. 165, Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas.

Mr. W. H. Culver,
222 W. 9th St.,
Maryville, Mo.

My dear Mr. Culver:

In a few days your soldier will receive his honorable discharge and start for home.

He is bringing back many fine qualities of body and mind which he has acquired or developed in the military service. The army has done everything it could do to make him strong, fine, self-reliant, yet self-controlled. It returns him to you a better man.

You have been an important member of that great army of encouragement and enthusiasm which helped to make him and us all better soldiers. You can now be a great help in keeping alive the good qualities he is bringing back from the army, in making him as good a citizen as he has been a good soldier.

His fare and necessary expenses to his home will be paid by the Government. He will receive all pay due him. He may, if he wishes, wear his uniform for three months from the date of his discharge. The Government will also allow him to keep up, for the benefit of his family, his insurance at the very low rate he is now paying.

His return to civil life will bring new problems for you both to solve. The qualities he brings back will help you now as your encouragement helped him while he was away, and in your hands and in his, rests the future of our country.

As his Commanding Officer, I am proud of him. He has done his duty well. I, and his comrades, will bid him good-bye with deep regret, and wish him every success after he returns home—that spot in every man's heart no other place can fill.

Sincerely yours,
C. H. McBURNEY,
1st. Lieut., Med. Corps, U. S. A.

10,000 POLICE HUNT MURDERERS.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet — colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

College Girls Home.

Miss Lucile Wiley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wiley living northeast of the city, and Miss Helen Dean, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Dean, who are attending Missouri Wesleyan College at Cameron, Mo., arrived home last night to visit their home folks until after the holidays.

Surprise for Mrs. Graves.

Mrs. S. S. Graves, living near Burlington Junction, was given a very pleasant surprise Wednesday to celebrate her birthday anniversary. The women of the Loyal Red Cross auxiliary have been meeting at her home for some time and Wednesday they brought with them a splendid dinner which was served at noon. A number of guests were invited to be present as well as the members and Mrs. Graves was presented with a beautiful rocking chair. Those present were Mrs. T. J. Tobin and children, Irene, Katherine, Edward and Francis, Mrs. Patrick Cummins, Miss Mary Cummins, Mrs. Elihu Carter, Mrs. E. A. Baker, Mrs. Ben Booher, Mrs. R. P. Ferguson and Mrs. Martha Whited.

Celebrates Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hainey of Barnard celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary Sunday, December 8, and spent the day quietly at their home receiving the felicitations of their many friends in that community. Mr. Hainey is eighty years old and his wife seventy-eight. They have lived at Barnard since 1877 and are among the most respected and admired folks in Nodaway county. Mr. Hainey has been in active business life until five years ago when failing eyesight compelled him to discontinue such work. They have three living children, Mrs. George Thompson and James F. Hainey of Barnard and W. P. Hainey of Selma, Montana.

College Women Organize for Work.

A local organization of the Associate of Collegiate Alumni has been formed among the college women of this vicinity with Miss Beulah Brunner, chairman, Miss Beatrix Winn, vice-chairman; Miss Edna Robinson, secretary-treasurer and Miss Hettie Anthony, conselor. This organization is found all over the country and has been formed especially for the promoting of education and any public improvement, particularly such things as child welfare, scholarships, reconstruction work, etc. During the war period a great deal of war relief work has been done by this organization as a unit. The colleges whose alumnus are eligible are those having a four years' course and giving an A. B. degree. The present members of the Maryville organization are Miss Katherine Jones, Miss Laura Hawkins and Miss Edna Robinson of the high school faculty; Miss Olive DeLuce, Miss Hettie Anthony, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Jaunita Floyd and Miss Beulah Brunner of the Normal faculty; Miss Lois Kate Halley, Mrs. Ike Thomas Pryor and Miss Dorothy Pierce. Any graduate of a college on the approved list of colleges is eligible to membership without application or invitation. The first regular meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the high school, when plans for the work will be fully laid. The chapters in Missouri are at St. Louis, Kansas City, Columbia, Springfield and Maryville. Any college woman in this section convenient to Maryville may affiliate with this chapter.

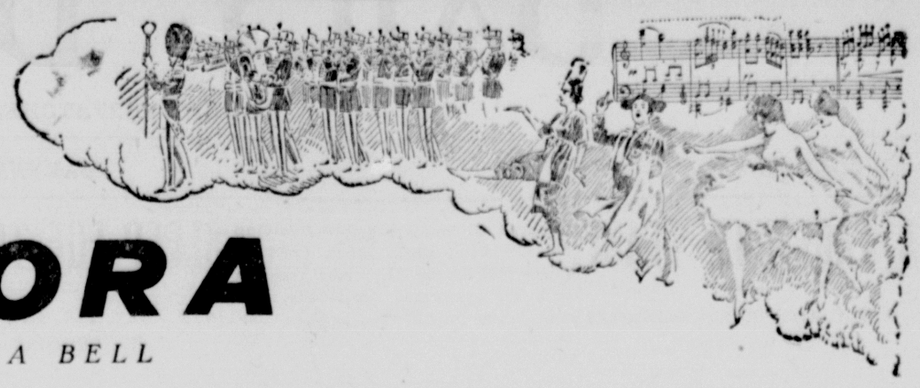
The Highest Class Talking Machine in the World



SONORA

CLEAR AS A BELL

You will be proud to own this magnificent instrument—internationally famous as the finest phonograph made———

THE SONORA is noted for its graceful lines, for its important and exclusive features of construction, for its ability to play all makes of disc records perfectly without extra attachments, and for its superb tonal qualities.

At the Panama Pacific Exposition in 1915 "the only jury which heard and tested all the phonographs exhibited, recommended that the Sonora Phonograph be given a marking for tone quality higher than that given to any other phonograph or talking machine."

And the tone of the Sonora today has been still further improved. From a complete line you can choose just the Sonora you want at just the amount you wish to pay.

We chose the Sonora when we decided to open a phonograph department, for the same reason that the World's Fair judges chose it—for its tone qualities—because that and the case are really all there is to a phonograph—that you can see and hear. We are satisfied with the Sonora—satisfied that it is well worth every cent of the price asked for it, and we have no hesitation in urging anyone anywhere to put one in their home. Because we are sure you will also be satisfied.

The Sonora would make a magnificent Christmas present for the whole family—one that will create enjoyment in the home for many years.

We have separate salesrooms for demonstrating the Sonora and we will be glad to have you come and hear this wonderful instrument at any time.

MARYVILLE BOYS SAFE

Edward and B. E. Condon and Harley Hughes Heard From Since Armistice.

Mrs. B. E. Condon has received letters from her son, Edward Condon, who is with the 35th Diision of the American army in France, written since the signing of the armistice, in which he says he is well and has come through severe fighting unharmed. Edward is with the division classed among those for the army of occupation now entering Germany. Mrs. Condon has another son, B. E. Condon, who is with the U. S. naval service. When last heard from he was doing coast duty in France and was well.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hughes have also heard from their son, Harley since the armistice and he is safe and well.

TO AID PHYSICALLY UNFIT

Congress Will Be Asked to Provide Fund for Promotion of Physical and Health Education.

For the promotion of physical and health education and recreation, a bill now in the Senate provides $20,000,000 annually by Congress "to co-operate with the States in their promotion, including "the medical and dental examination of children of school age, the determination of mental and physical defects in such children, the employment of school nurses, the establishment and maintenance of school dental clinics, and the instruction of the people in the principles of health and sanitation."

The States are to be allotted shares of the appropriation on the basis of total population according to the last census. This provides a federal appropriation of 21¾ cents for each person and requires an equal amount from the state, making a total of 43½ cents for each person. This is a small per capita amount, but for each State there is a substantial sum.

Missouri's population in 1910 was 3,293,335. She would therefore receive from Congress for physical and health education $716,300.36 annually. An equal amount from the State would make available $1,432,600.72 annually.

The war has made us newly conscious of the number physically unfit for military service. Under the first Selective Draft, 730,756 men were rejected for physical reasons after examination. This is 29 per cent of the total number actually examined by Local Boards. Thousands of these persons are made fit by proper treatment. The economic loss due to preventable illness is not less than 10 per cent of our total present production. When one considers the loss of productive power due to remedial defects and to ill health that might easily have been avoided, he is convinced that the sensible thing is for the nation and the States to co-operate in an educational program that will avoid this economic loss, and, at the same time, give to people healthy and, therefore, happy and efficient bodies.

EX-KAISERIN IN BREAKDOWN.

Copenhagen, Dec. 14.—The former kaiserin has suffered a nervous mental breakdown, according to advices received today from Amsterdam.

More than 50,000,000 men were raised for war by all the nations engaged. Casualties on the battlefields were more than 26,000,000. About 8,000,000 men have been killed.

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Taken from the County Papers.

Miss Edna Robb of Hopkins arrived home last Saturday from American Falls, Idaho, where she has a splendid position in the city schools of that city, having several teachers under her. On account of the influenza epidemic, the schools have been closed there for nearly two months and during this time Miss Edna has been acting in the capacity of a nurse. If the epidemic does not subside, she may not return west as it will practically break up the school this year.

That Hopkins minister seems bound and determined to have us furnish the chicken dinner for the district conference to be held in Hopkins, so if hell come down and dress the fowls and cut the wood and build the fire and carry water and empty the slops, we'll take the matter under serious advisement. There's a lot of mighty hard work attached to getting up a chicken dinner for a big crowd, a lot more than the average man realizes—until he tries it.

The music that sounded from the forest of A. L. Booze near Hopkins, last Friday was sweeter to the listener than even the "Star Spangled Banner" or "Over There." The cause of this music was occasioned by a crowd of neighbors and friends of Aunt Sarah Tabors, who went into the forest with teams, axes and saws. The click, click, and buzz, buzz, never stopped until about seven cords of the nice dry wood was piled near the old lady's door. When we saw these men turning home, with empty sacks, and baskets, we knew they had thought of her other needs besides a warm fire; and from what the "Old Lady" told the writer, some of their purses were flatter, but their hearts were lighter when they perceived the joy they had wrought.

Several Pickering girls are trying to get some of the farmer boys to give a real old fashioned husking bee with cider and popcorn and dancing, and the boys agree if the girls promise the coveted kiss with each red ear of corn discovered.

Len Andrews of Hopkins, is happy over the result of his sale held last Thursday. He had counted on the total reaching between seven and eight thousand dollars but when Clerk Sheley turned over the books the total proved to be $9,100, and if the car had sold the grand total would have been an even ten thousand dollars. Len had good stuff, one mare bringing $300, another $256 and the others better prices than horses are generally bring ing, while his hogs went out of sight and the white face cattle didn't hurt the average any. Col. Foreman was the chief auctioneer, being assisted by Col. Cummins, of Sheridan, and these men feel that they certainly got the high dollar for everything going thru the ring. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will go west soon and while they have not fully made up their minds, they will likely locate in California. They are splendid young people and it is with regret their friends and neighbors learn of their decision to leave here.

Frank DeWitt and Bob Poage of Hopkins, have traded properties, Bob getting the old Cowen home and five acres of ground at the east edge of Hopkins, and Frank the Poage property on the hill in the south part of town, Bob giving Frank $250 "to boot." Each of the families are now at home in their newly acquired property and so far neither regret the trade was made.

James Allison of Hopkins, recently received a message announcing the death of a sister who passed away at her home in Canada at the advanced age of 100 years and 9 months. This remarkable woman had always been a great worker and did lots of work in the garden the past summer, never being contented to remain idle. She was the mother of thirteen children, the oldest of these being nearly eighty years of age. Mr. Allison visited this sister some three years ago and says her mind was as bright and clear then as ever and remained so until the very day of her death when she gave up and said she was willing and ready to go, sending a message to the brother here asking him to meet her in heaven. Mr. Allison is nearly 90 years of age.

Edgar L. Hewett was visiting in Hopkins two days of the week with his sister, Miss Cassie Hewett. Mr. Hewett's home is in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and is president of the Archaeological Institute of America. He had recently been called to Washington on the war council, and stopped here for a short stay on his return trip. In his search for antiquities, he has visited all parts of the world and is a prominent as well as a very interesting man to meet and talk with.

Chas. Hall of Clearmont, was a Burlington Junction visitor yesterday afternoon, and he informs us that Dr. Hindman met with quite an accident on the main street there about 6 o'clock. The Dr. was driving a team, and in some way collided with an auto. The Dr. was thrown from the buggy onto the hard road and when help got to him he was unconscious, and Mr. Hall says when he left for the depot to take the train for home he was still unconscious and that the extent of his injuries had not been ascertained. The Dr. had been here to see a patient and left here about 5 o'clock.

L. L. Hart of Clearmont, has bought the Bush 80 that joined him on the southwest. This straightens out his farm and gives him about 275 acres all in a body and makes him one of the finest farms in this part of the country.

Jake Pruitt and family of Clearmont, left Monday morning for Tina, Mo., where they will make their home for the present.

Several of the neighbors of Mrs. Jesse Colter of Clearmont, whose husband went into the service after he had raised his crop, gathered together and went and shucked nearly all of the corn he had raised. Mrs. Colter, learning of their intentions, furnished dinner for them at the Everett Gray home.

Herbert Zerbst of Conception, met with quite an accident Tuesday evening while cutting wood at the home of John Walsh. In some way the ax, which was in the hands of Cornelius Brady, slipped striking his foot and inflicting a serious wound which necessitated several stitches.

Miss Frankie Morrissey of Conception received a letter this morning from her brother, Jack, who is in France, in which he stated that he considered himself very fortunate, as he had been in several of the battles and came out without a scratch.

An express package weighing forty pounds, was received Monday evening by T. E. Archer, living southwest of Conception, from his son, Thomas, who is stationed at West Point, Ky. The package contained two shells, one a four point seven, the other an American 75, which contained some shrapnel. Upon the arrival of this package at the depot, Marshal Purcell became very much excited and immediately telephoned to Mr. Archer informing him that the package appeared to be a very dangerous one and obtained his permission to take it and examine the contents. Using great care he proceeded to open the package and much to his surprise and disappointment found it to be perfectly harmless having been fired at the proving grounds at West Point. Mr. Archer very kindly left the shells at the Courier office in order that those who had never seen such missiles might have an opportunity to do so.

Ed Donnelly of Conception returned home Tuesday morning from Washington, D. C. Soon after being inducted into serivce of the United States he was sent to the Walter Reed hospital in that city where he remained until he was honorably discharged from the service.

Prior to the death of S. H. Rasco, of Barnard, who was buried a week ago last Sunday, there were five generations living in his family. He had nine children living, 32 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. His posterity numbered 79.

Geo. W. Cole of Barnard, traded his farm of 245 acres on which Warren Phelps now lives to A. M. Rasco Saturday, consideration, being $29,400, taking in the 78 acre farm of Rasco's at $11,060, possession to be given on March 1. Monday, R. E. Cook bought the 79 acres from Geo. W. Cole which he traded for Saturday, giving in exchange as part payment his 20 acre farm on which W. L. Gilbert now lives. The consideration for each farm per acre was $150. Possession will be given March 1. Cook will not move to his farm but will rent it.

"Red" Younger of Burlington Junction did some good work on the roads and streets the first of the week, dragging from the farm of his employer, J. W. Praiswater, to town, and then two blocks on Main street and on up to Mr. Praiswater's residence. He had a heavy drag with three big horses and his work showed that he knew how to put the surface of a road in good shape.

$15.00 a hundred for grass cattle sounds like a record price, and this was what B. B. Staples of Burlington Junction received for eleven young steers on the St. Louis market a few days ago. N. I. Staples had 60 grass steers on the same market that he received $12.50 a hundred for. He had owned these cattle but a short time and they put on over 200 pounds in weight and sold for about $2.50 more a hundred than he paid for them.

Murray E. Gilderbloom, better know to his boyhood friends in Burlington Junction as "Ed," visited at the home of John Vanderlinden and with old friends here this week. Ed was unfortunate in losing his wife last month, who died of the influenza, leaving three small sons, aged six(four and two years. Ed has been very successful since leaving here fifteen years ago, being employed for several years by the government as civil engineer. Later he promoted a new rail road in Colorado, but this work was stopped when war was declared. At present he is cashier and principal stock holder in a bank at Cope, Colo.

The Boy Scuots of Burlington Junction will establish permanent headquarters in the rooms now occupied by Dr. G. C. Trusty, as soon as the dentist moves to his new location. A rug, twenty chairs and a table are needed to furnish the rooms for the Scouts and it is requested that these be contributed by the people of the town. The Boy Scouts is one of the best organizations in Burlington Junction and supplying them with necessary furnishings for their rooms will be a profitable investment.

Whos in?

Oglesby & Kessler, who have been conducting the Corn Belt Cafe in Ravenwood for the past few months, have given up the work, the stock having been traded for residence in Maryville. The new owners of the business are George Aley and son, Ralph and the latter is in charge.

Harry Fryar of Ravenwood, sent home a couple of shells from the battle front and for several days they have been in the Gazette display window, as has also the Stars and Stripes, the paper issued by the Yanks in the war region. The shells attract the most attention, one being a three inch from the St. Mihiel region and the other probably a machine gun part from Verdun. They were mailed in France during October and never arrived until last Friday.

John Lowrance brought a wagon load of turkeys and chickens to Skidmore the first of the week for which he received $175 from a local dealer. Not so bad for one load of poultry.

Forbes Starr and Crit Richards of Parnell engaged in a corn "shucking" contest Monday of this week. They "shucked" one hour and fifteen minutes. When Forbes measured his corn he found he had even seventeen bushels, and Crit just three and one-half bushels less. Cri had no peg or gloves on, or he might have gained the day.

Roy Birkenholz of Parnell, is back from France, now being in one of the camps in Maryland. He was wounded in one of his ankles while on the firing line in France. He may be home to spend Christmas. Roy was in the thickest of the fight.

Horses are getting lower in price every day. A pair of fine young horses were sold here the first of the week for $100. Don't know whether because feed is so high at this season of the year or on account of the world war being almost over or because autos are taking their places. There is some reason but we do not know what it is says the Parnell Sentinel.

CARL A. WARREN DEAD

Former Resident Passes Away at Chamberlain, S. D.

Carl Warren, a former resident of this city, died yesterday morning at Chamberlain, S. D., after a week's illness of pneumonia and influenza. His mother, Mrs. Nettie Warren of Maryville was called to Chamberlain Tuesday night by her son's illness.

Mr. Warren leaves a wife and ten month's old baby, his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Brummit and Miss Ethel Warren of Maryville, and one brother, Clarence Warren, who is with the American army in France.

Clint Rinehart of Burlington Junction spent yesterday visiting in Maryville.

SKIDMORE MINISTER RESIGNS.

Rev. Arbutnnot, of M. E. Church, South Returns to Former Home.

Rev. D. H. Arbuthnot, who was assigned to the pastorate of the M. E. South church at Skidmore and at Centenary and New Hope by the last general conference of that denomination, handed in his resignation a few days ago and left for Louisiana, Mo., where he had been pastor before coming here.

This resignation severs his connection with the Missouri conference and he will probably not try to re-enter the ministry, especially of the South Methodist church.

His ambition is to go to Europe and assist in reconstruction work there, but whether or not he realizes this ambition yet remains to be seen.

Officials of the church have received word from the presiding elder that a man will be sent to minister to this field as soon as one can be secured for the place.

STRONG "outside connections" are fundamentally important to any bank that seeks to serve its community well. City terminals and markets must be kept in constant touch so that business men and farmers, shippers and manufacturers can cooperate to the best interests of themselves and their Government.

No financial institution in this community has more advantageous outside connections than we have in the numerous correspondents with which we transact our commercial business in the various large cities of this state and country.

In celebration of their demobilization as a part of Uncle Sam's army the S. A. T. C. army officers and members of the Normal faculty spent an hour or more in the mess hall at supper last night around tables filled with good things—a "farewell feed"—with speeches by President Richardson, Lieutenants Kaercher and Burns and others that made the boys feel like wishing the signing of the armistice might have been put off for awhile

In his talk to the members of the Corps President Richardson said he knew the lessons they had learned in discipline and in the things that came from close association would be remembered and would be productive of good results. He expressed pleasure in being able to have them at the Normal and the real enjoyment it had been to look personally after their welfare with assurance they would find him ready at any time to "go over the top" with them in any good service. Three cheers and a tiger, together with a number of suspiciously moist eyes as President Richardson sat down left no doubt of the love and esteem in which he is held by the members of the S. A. T. C.

Barring delays from one cause and another the boys are expected to have their final discharge papers by tonight when most of them will leave for their homes. Some eight or ten have expressed the intention of continuing as students at the Normal.

An impressie ceremony marked the demobilization of the unit this morning when the men were drawn up in company formation just outside the Normal building to receive their official discharge. As each man's name was called by the army officers, he stepped forward and after exchange of military salute was handed the much prized paper.

Lieut. Geo. H. Kaercher expects to return to his home at Pottstown, Pa., to spend the holidays before receiving his discharge while Lieut. Cecil V. Burns will spend Christmas vacation with his parents at Owensboro, Ky., after which he will report to the commanding officer at Plattsburg, N. Y. training camp.

MRS. FRED R. WOLFERS DEAD

Prominent Young Matron Is Victim of Influenza.—Funeral Monday and Burial at Hopkins.

Mrs. Theodosia Wolfers, the wife of Fred R. Wolfers of this city died at 10:30 o'clock last night at her home 1019 North Oak street. Mrs. Wolfers' death was due to pneumonia which followed an attack of influenza.

The funeral services will be held Monday morning on the porch at the home, conducted by Dr. Gilbert S. Cox pastor of the First Methodist church. The body will be taken to Hopkins and interred in the Wolfers' family burial lot.

Mrs. Wolfers was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jackson of Hardy, Ark. She was born March 13, 1892. She was married to Mr. Wolfers October 26, 1916. Beside her husband and parents, Mrs. Wolfers is survived by three brothers, Lloyd Jackson, in the naval radio service at Cambridge, Mass.; Aubrey, with the S. A. T. C. at Batesville, Ark.; Homer Jackson and a sister, Pauline, living at home with the parents.

Mrs. Wolfers came to this city a young bride and made many sincere friends during her residence. She was a graduate of the University of Missouri and finished her musical education at Stephens College, Columbia. While at school she met a number of college girls from this city with whom she became friends and it was on subsequent visits here and at Hopkins that she and her future husband became acquainted. She was a member of the Twentieth Century club and was one of the most prominent young matrons of the city in club and social circles.

SLEEP FOE TO 'FLU'

LIVE NORMALLY, STAY HOME AT NIGHT, DOCTORS ADVISE

DONT FEAR THE DISEASE

Fear and Worry Reduces Bodily Resistance.—Not Agreed That It Is a Crowd Disease.

With hundreds of health experts attending sessions of the American Public Health Association's meeting in Chicago this week, none claims to have found the active agent in the influenza epidemic, according to the correspondent of the Kansas City Star, and while it is admitted by the highest authorities the medical profession is fighting in the dark, certain rules for the individual, to prevent contraction of the disease have been tacitly agreed upon.

The rules came from different sections of the country and developed through individual experiences of health officials. They were gleaned from papers covering the experiences of army and navy health officials and of scores of public health officers and practicing physicians.

Briefly, the rules recommended unofficially are:

Get plenty of sleep—nine hours every night if possible.
Live normally, meaning for each person to live his normal life; to do nothing that would have a tendency to change his physical resistance.
Eat moderately—enough, but not more than is necessary.
Stay at home at night.
Avoid crowds as much as possible, in or out of doors.
Avoid worry—it reduces physical resistance.
Don't fear the disease—that has the same effect as worry.
Keep the hands away from the face and mouth.
Eat from dishes that have been steamed or washed in boiling water.
Avoid raw milk.
Avoid the use of medicines that contain opiates.
Keep the intestinal tract open.
Take every precaution to prevent a cold.

Virtually every authority has placed stress upon the matter of rest as a preventive measure, also upon normal living.

"By normal living," said and army health officer, "we mean the daily life the person has been living. For instance, if a man is in the habit of taking a drink of liquor every day, let him continue to take the drink, but not increase it. If he smokes three or four or five cigars a day, continue it. Any change of that character in daily living brings about a physical change that may throw down the bars for influenza."

Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner of Chicago, illustrated the psychological effect of fear. He told of a large Chicago institution through which the epidemic was sweeping. Vaccination was determined upon and administered to those who had not contracted the disease.

"Immediately there was a remarkable decrease in number of new cases," he said. "It couldn't have been the physical effect of the vaccine. It had not had time to do its work. But those inoculated had faith in the treatment. The element of fear was removed. It is a well known fact fear reduces bodily resistance to disease."

The general ban has not been recommended. It is not even agreed influenza is a "crowd disease."

NO NIGHT CHURCH SERVICES

Pastors Unite With Health Authorities to Prevent Influenza Spread.

At a meeting yesterday of the ministers of the various churches it was decided that the Sunday night services tomorrow night would be dispensed with. The ministers stated the decision to hold no night service was due to a desire to co-operate with the health authorities in further checking the influenza epidemic which now seems to be on the wane. All other services at the various churches will be held as usual.

HEAR BOOZE CASE MONDAY

Police Believe They Have "the Goods" on Giles Burris, Charged with Violation of Liquor Law.

Giles Burris, charged with violation of the local option law, will be given a hearing in Mayor W. O. Garrett's court Monday at one o'clock. Burris announced yesterday that he was not ready for trial and after securing an attorney made an effort to get bond, but at a late hour today had been unsuccessful.

According to the police they have a pretty plain case against Burris, brot about by the arrest and subsequent confession of Robert Thomas. Suspicion had been directed toward Burris for sometime, the police say, and repeated visits by various parties to Burris' rooms over the building on North Main street appeared to give further evidence that something was amiss. Thursday morning Burris, Bert Martin and Thomas were seen to go up stairs to Burris' rooms and a short time later when Thomas reappeared on the street he was arrested and a bottle of liquor found on him. He pleaded guilty to "giving away whiskey" and after a maximum fine and sentence by Mayor Garrett, decided he would tell where he got it.

His writen confession implicated Burris and Martin. The latter being out on parole was arrested and when brought before the Mayor and Thomas denied all knowledge or connection with the transaction. Yesterday short ly afternoon the police arrested Burris at his rooms and are also said to have found a quantity of whiskey.

Thomas still adheres to his story of purchasing booze from Burris and recounted several occasions when he had made purchases at the rate of $5 per quart. He will be the prosecuting witness in the case. Burris has secured legal counsel and promises to fight the case to a finish.

50,000 U.S. CITIZENS

NATURALIZED WHILE FIGHTING UNDER STARS AND STRIPES

FOLLOW THEM TO FRANCE

Bureau of Naturalization Made Special Effort to Extend Privileges of Citizenship to All Foreigners.

When our armies return from the war there will be in the ranks of the victorious soldiers 50,000 or more new citizens of the United States. This country will spell "home" to tens of thousands of men who were aliens when they sailed away to fight for the country that is now their own, for in the midst of battles the Bureau of Naturalization of the Department of Labor has reached out to extend the privileges of citizenship to all foreigners who were defending the principles of liberty under the Stars and Stripes.

Louis Weinberger, sent across seas to carry out the government's natural ization program, returned recently after three months of hard work, for it was his duty to follow up 50,000 of the 150,000 naturalization blanks especially prepared for the war emergency.

According to the plan worked out by the bureau, in conference with the Judge Advocate General, a scheme to expedite the usual process of naturalization was made practicable and legal. The required formalities were reduced to the simplest terms. The preliminary declaration of intention was waived and it was made possible to issue the final papers without any lapse of time. The applicant could execute one paper in duplicate, together with affidavits, and take the oath of allegiance—all in short order.

The first serious problem was to reach all the aliens in the distribution of the blanks, but this was soon solved by sending the papers through brigade headquarters and thus reaching the company units. In many cases extra blanks were sent for, and so far the exact number actually used has not been obtained. Although naturalization was not in any way compulsory, it was soon evident that there was a general desire to attain citizenship wherever foreigners were serving, and that was everywhere in the armies of the United States. Among the applications nearly every nation on the globe was represented. Because of the haste with which so many soldiers were made citizens, however, it must not be supposed that the bars requiring that men accepted by the nation should be worthy of enrollment as Americans were let down. Owing to military regulations, each man's history had been carefully tabulated and then the men who were making the world safe for democracy belonged to a class that was as a whole trustworthy.

One of the interesting phases of this wholesale naturalization enterprise had to do with alien enemies. Even these who could prove their loyalty were entitled to citizenship, and a num ber of Austrians and Germans took the oath of allegiance to the flag. Owing to the efficiency of the Bureau of Military Intelligence, there was little danger of mistakes in the admission of undesirable men.

DIES UPON ARRIVAL HOME

William Mozingo Returns From Sanatarium This Morning, Died at Noon.—Funeral at Home.

William Mozingo died at one o'clock this afternoon at his home, 1402 East Halsey street. Mr. Mozingo had been at the Mayo sanatarium at Rochester, Minn., for some time and failed to improve. Accompanied by his wife he returned to Maryville this morning.

The funeral services will be held at the home at three o'clock Monday afternoon conducted by the Rev. W. C. Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist church. The Woodmen of the World, of which Mr. Mozingo was a member, will be in charge for the funeral.

Mr. Mozingo was 44 years old. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Mary Frost of this city, three young children, Verna, Freddie and Willie, Jr., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mozingo, two sisters, Mrs. Bert Sharp of Ft. Madison, Ia., and Mrs. Chas. Partridge, living east of the city, and two brothers, Frank Mozingo of Dennison, Wash., and James Mozingo of Maryville.

BAPTIST AT BOARD MEET

Will Launch Five Year Campaign for Better Church Buildings and Equipment in Nodaway, Holt and Atchison Counties.

Rev. W. C. Ferguson, pastor of the First Baptist church, Capt. Charles Hyslop and I. E. Tebow were at Bigelow yesterday attending a district executive board meeting of the Baptist churches of Nodaway, Holt and Atchison counties.

The most important part of the session was the starting of a five year campaign to help all Baptist churches in the district to secure church buildings in keeping with the community in which they are located and to be properly equipped for the prosecution of modern church work.

Miss Eva Davis, secretary of the Nodaway county Sunday School Association, has recently completed a large survey map, showing the location of all churches in the three counties in connection with the Northwest Baptist District Association work.

The next quarterly meeting will be held at Rock Port Jan. 22-23.

A COUNCIL MEETING FRIDAY

Adjourned Session Last Night Made Necessary by Postponement of Commercial Club Meeting.

At an adjourned session of the city council last night, a further adjournment was held until Friday night, Dec. 20. The adjournment was taken at the request of the Commercial Club, as it was expected a petition asking for a special election to vote on changing to commission government would be presented. The calling off of the meeting of the Commercial Club which was to precede the council session, made a second adjournment necessary.

It is believed that conditions within a few days will be such that a meeting may be announced when a general discussion will be had concerning the proposed commission form.

CAPTAIN BELL RELEASED.

Wired Maryville Folks He Would Be Home Before Christmas.

James B. Robinson received a message at noon today from Capt. Charles T. Bell at Washington, D. C., that he had received his discharge from the army medical service and would be home sometime before Christmas. When Capt. Bell was transferred from Camp McArthur, Texas to Allentown, Pa., he was accompanied by Mrs. Bell and their young son and they will return to Maryville together.

ARMISTICE IS EXTENDED.

London, Dec. 14. — The armistice granted Germany has been extended for one month to January 17, 1919, and will be further prolonged until the conclusion of preliminary peace, subject to the consent of the Allies, according to authoritative information from Treves today.

WILSON WOULD MAKE HUNS PAY

TELLS FRENCH THAT GERMANY MUST BE PUNISHED FOR THE CRIMES OF THE WAR

ALL PARIS TURNS OUT-- GREAT DEMONSTRATION

Is Met at Station by Distinguished Party Headed by President Poincaire.—Thundering Cheers From Immense Crowd in Greeting.

Paris, Dec. 14.—"I will surely look upon the ruin wrought by the armies of the Central empires with the same repulsion and deep indignation that they stir in the hearts of the men of France and Belgium, and I appreciate as you do, the necessity of such action in the final settlement of the issues of the war as will not only rebuke such acts of terror and spoilation, but will make men everywhere understand that they can not be ventured upon without certainty of just punishment." These were the words today of President Wilson in his reply to President Poincaire's formal welcome at a lunch eon at Elysees Palace. President Wilson declared the questions raised by the war must be settled in such a way as to insure the future peace of the world.

Paris, Dec. 14.—Two minutes before ten o'clock this morning booming guns from Mont Valerian on the outskirts of Paris announced that President Wilson's train was traversing the forUfications marking the outer limits of the city. Paris listened breathlessly, then exclaimed, "He has come." It was a salute of welcome to the great American statesman who came to Europe to attend the peace conference. When the train arrived at the depot thundering cheers from the crowds in the streets outside echoed and billowed about the station. The station plaza was jammed wih people who waived flags and mingled their shouts with the cries of "Long Live Wilson," "Welcome to the Messenger of Peace."

The fashionable restaurants had opened an hour earlier than usual to accommodate the throngs, but many carried bread, jam and wine to the station to eat while awaiting the arrival of the train. The weather is fine and vast crowds line the boulevards all along the line.

The demonstration of greeting will linger long in the memory of Paris and of President and Mrs. Wilson. The whole city was declared out of flags and it seemed that every person in the vast throng wore American flags and dealers ransacked their stocks to supply the demand.

A distinguished party greeted President Wilson at the station. It included President and Mrs. Poincaire, Premier Clemenceau, a distinguished galaxy of ambassadors, ministers, army and navy officers mostly accompanied by their wives. The entire course leading from the station was lined on both sides with French soldiers. The residence of Prince Murat, whose home President and Mrs. Wilson will occupy during their stay in Paris was all in readiness when they arrived there. The President was keenly interested in everything that he saw on a ride through the city. The grounds of the Murat residence are patrolled by armed guards, the secret service and the police while nearby were American secret service agents and plain clothes men.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Sunday; somewhat colder tonight.

President Wilson is nearly to France. Theodore still spattering and the Government still stands.

Having won the fight to make the world safe for Democracy, the next step is to make democracy in Europe safe for the world.

With the War Industries Board going out of business the first of the year, the Food Administration taking its hands off the dinner table, the Fuel Administration abandoning the zone system and closing up its affairs, and with the ban lifted from the sugar bowl, Santa Claus is so generous with freedom that we may well restrain ourselves lest we develop a real Bolshevik Christmas.

Washington has a firm of "experts" that styles itself "promoters of loveliness." They are neither gardeners nor florists though they do turn out some very agreeable looking Roses, Pansies, Violets, etc.

The Rev. Mr. Wilfley, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church of this city, has been acting as chaplain of the national House of Representatives during the illness of the regular chaplain, Dr. Couden, recently. He is a brother of Geo. L. Wilfley of Maryville. He has a straight forward delivery and delivers a clean cut, forceful prayer with all due respect to brevity. The latter feature is always popular with the membership when applied to prayers.

It is not believed that soldiers can be maintained by the United States in Europe in great numbers more than four months beyond the signing of the peace treaty without additional legislation. The law providing for the national army and governing enlistments subsequently provided that their term of service should not last beyond four months following the declaration of peace. It is estimated that there are not more than 40,000 of the regular army left who were enlisted prior to the passage of the act limiting the period of service. This means that, if it is the purpose to keep a large body of men in Europe for any considerable length of time, more legislation will be necessary.

Thoughtful republican leaders who have been ruminating on the net results of the late election have come to the conclusion that they were stung. Of course it was nice to get control of Congress and a lot of state legislatures but, when they have completed an inventory of the disagreeable difficulties that have come into their possession, they are not so enthusiastic over their great victory. It was very comfortable to be in the minority and criticise the acts of the majority without stint and without responsibility. In so doing they could profit by all the dissatisfaction growing out of legislation for which some one else must be held responsible and thus strengthen their position for the presidential campaign in 1920. Some have begun to think now that they overdid themselves and pulled the pillars of promise down on their heads. With the end of the war and the coming of peace, a general reversal of effort is necessitated. We must cease war efforts and get back to peace. A great work of reconstruction is ahead and with it some exceedingly important and embarrassing problems. What will we do with the railroads? What will we do with the high cost of living? What will we do with the wage question? What will we do with the telegraph and telephone lines? What will we do with the military question? How will we raise the money to pay off the national debt? These and a score of other questions must be met and disposed of within the next two years and they carry vast possibilities for discord and political disaster. On these questions republicans are no better united than are democrats, but they must shoulder the responsibility for legislation in the next Congress and many of the wiser ones wish it were not so.

"HE HAS DONE HIS DUTY"

W. H. Culver Receives Word His Son, Thomas, Will Soon Be Discharged at Camp McArthur, Texas.

W. H. Culver of Maryville, whose son Thomas Culver, is at Base Hospital No. 165, Camp McArthur, Waco, Tex., has received the following letter from the young man's commanding officer: Base Hospital No. 165, Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas.

Mr. W. H. Culver,
222 W. 9th St.,
Maryville, Mo.

My dear Mr. Culver:

In a few days your soldier will receive his honorable discharge and start for home.

He is bringing back many fine qualities of body and mind which he has acquired or developed in the military service. The army has done everything it could do to make him strong, fine, self-reliant, yet self-controlled. It returns him to you a better man.

You have been an important member of that great army of encouragement and enthusiasm which helped to make him and us all better soldiers. You can now be a great help in keeping alive the good qualities he is bringing back from the army, in making him as good a citizen as he has been a good soldier.

His fare and necessary expenses to his home will be paid by the Government. He will receive all pay due him. He may, if he wishes, wear his uniform for three months from the date of his discharge. The Government will also allow him to keep up, for the benefit of his family, his insurance at the very low rate he is now paying.

His return to civil life will bring new problems for you both to solve. The qualities he brings back will help you now as your encouragement helped him while he was away, and in your hands and in his, rests the future of our country.

As his Commanding Officer, I am proud of him. He has done his duty well. I, and his comrades, will bid him good-bye with deep regret, and wish him every success after he returns home—that spot in every man's heart no other place can fill.

Sincerely yours,
C. H. McBURNEY,
1st. Lieut., Med. Corps, U. S. A.

10,000 POLICE HUNT MURDERERS.

New York, Dec. 14.—Ten thousand police today are concentrating their effort toward apprehending two desperados who yesterday shot and killed two employees of the East Brooklyn Savings Bank and escaped with $13,000 in cash.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet — colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

College Girls Home.

Miss Lucile Wiley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wiley living northeast of the city, and Miss Helen Dean, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Dean, who are attending Missouri Wesleyan College at Cameron, Mo., arrived home last night to visit their home folks until after the holidays.

Surprise for Mrs. Graves.

Mrs. S. S. Graves, living near Burlington Junction, was given a very pleasant surprise Wednesday to celebrate her birthday anniversary. The women of the Loyal Red Cross auxiliary have been meeting at her home for some time and Wednesday they brought with them a splendid dinner which was served at noon. A number of guests were invited to be present as well as the members and Mrs. Graves was presented with a beautiful rocking chair. Those present were Mrs. T. J. Tobin and children, Irene, Katherine, Edward and Francis, Mrs. Patrick Cummins, Miss Mary Cummins, Mrs. Elihu Carter, Mrs. E. A. Baker, Mrs. Ben Booher, Mrs. R. P. Ferguson and Mrs. Martha Whited.

Celebrates Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hainey of Barnard celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary Sunday, December 8, and spent the day quietly at their home receiving the felicitations of their many friends in that community. Mr. Hainey is eighty years old and his wife seventy-eight. They have lived at Barnard since 1877 and are among the most respected and admired folks in Nodaway county. Mr. Hainey has been in active business life until five years ago when failing eyesight compelled him to discontinue such work. They have three living children, Mrs. George Thompson and James F. Hainey of Barnard and W. P. Hainey of Edna, Montana.

College Women Organize for Work.

A local organization of the Associate of Collegiate Alumni has been formed among the college women of this vicinity with Miss Beulah Brunner, chairman; Miss Beatrix Winn, vice-chairman; Miss Edna Robinson, secretary-treasurer and Miss Hettie Anthony, conselor. This organization is found all over the country and has been formed especially for the promoting of education and any public improvement, particularly such things as child welfare, scholarships, reconstruction work, etc. During the war period a great deal of war relief work has been done by this organization as a unit. The colleges whose alumnus are eligible are those having a four years' course and giving an A. B. degree. The present members of the Maryville organization are Miss Katherine Jones, Miss Laura Hawkins and Miss Edna Robinson of the high school faculty; Miss Olive DeLuce, Miss Hettie Anthony, Miss Mildred Miller, Miss Juanita Floyd and Miss Beulah Brunner of the Normal faculty; Miss Lois Kate Halley, Mrs. Ike Thomas Pryor and Miss Dorothy Pierce. Any graduate of a college on the approved list of colleges is eligible to membership without application or invitation. The first regular meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the high school, when plans for the work will be fully laid. The chapters in Missouri are at St. Louis, Kansas City, Columbia, Springfield and Maryville. Any college woman in this section convenient to Maryville may affiliate with this chapter.

The Highest Class Talking Machine in the World

SONORA

CLEAR AS A BELL

You will be proud to own this magnificient instrument—internationally famous as the finest phonograph made———

THE SONORA is noted for its graceful lines, for its important and exclusive features of construction, for its ability to play all makes of disc records perfectly without extra attachments, and for its superb tonal qualities.

At the Panama Pacific Exposition in 1915 "the only jury which heard and tested all the phonographs exhibited, recommended that the Sonora Phonograph be given a marking for tone quality higher than that given to any other phonograph or talking machine."

And the tone of the Sonora today has been still further improved. From a complete line you can choose just the Sonora you want at just the amount you wish to pay.

We chose the Sonora when we decided to open a phonograph department, for the same reason that the World's Fair judges chose it—for its tone qualities—because that and the case are really all there is to a phonograph—that you can see and hear. We are satisfied with the Sonora—satisfied that it is well worth every cent of the price asked for it, and we have no hesitation in urging anyone anywhere to put one in their home. Because we are sure you will also be satisfied.

The Sonora would make a magnificent Christmas present for the whole family—one that will create enjoyment in the home for many years.

We have separate salesrooms for demonstrating the Sonora and we will be glad to have you come and hear this wonderful instrument at any time.

Edward and B. E. Condon and Harley Hughes Heard From Since Armistice.

Mrs. B. E. Condon has received letters from her son, Edward Condon, who is with the 35th Diision of the American army in France, written since the signing of the armistice, in which he says he is well and has come through severe fighting unharmed. Edward is with the division classed among those for the army of occupation now entering Germany. Mrs. Condon has another son, B. E. Condon, who is with the U. S. naval service. When last heard from he was doing coast duty in France and was well.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hughes have also heard from their son, Harley since the armistice and he is safe and well.

TO AID PHYSICALLY UNFIT

Congress Will Be Asked to Provide Fund for Promotion of Physical and Health Education.

For the promotion of physical and health education and recreation, a bill now in the Senate provides $20,000,000 annually by Congress "to co-operate with the States in their promotion, including "the medical and dental examination of children of school age, the determination of mental and physical defects in such children, the employment of school nurses, the establishment and maintenance of school dental clinics, and the instruction of the people in the principles of health and sanitation."

The States are to be allotted shares of the appropriation on the basis of total population according to the last census. This provides a federal appropriation of 21¾ cents for each person and requires an equal amount from the state, making a total of 43½ cents for each person. This is a small per capita amount, but for each State there is a substantial sum.

Missouri's population in 1910 was 3,293,335. She would therefore receive from Congress for physical and health education $716,300.36 annually. An equal amount from the State would make available $1,432,600.72 annually.

The war has made us newly conscious of the number physically unfit for military service. Under the first Selective Draft, 730,756 men were rejected for physical reasons after examination. This is 29 per cent of the total number actually examined by Local Boards. Thousands of these persons are made fit by proper treatment. The economic loss due to preventable illness is not less than 10 per cent of our total present production. When one considers the loss of productive power due to remedial defects and to ill health that might easily have been avoided, he is convinced that the sensible thing is for the nation and the States to co-operate in an educational program that will avoid this economic loss, and, at the same time, give to people healthy and, therefore, happy and efficient bodies.

NEWS FROM
NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

Taken from the County Papers.

Miss Edna Robb of Hopkins arrived home last Saturday from American Falls, Idaho, where she has a splendid position in the city schools of that city, having several teachers under her. On account of the influenza epidemic, the schools have been closed there for nearly two months and during this time Miss Edna has been acting in the capacity of a nurse. If the epidemic does not subside, she may not return west as it will practically break up the school this year.

That Hopkins minister seems bound and determined to have us furnish the chicken dinner for the district conference to be held in Hopkins, so if hell come down and dress the fowls and cut the wood and build the fire and carry water and empty the slops, we'll take the matter under serious advisement. There's a lot of mighty hard work attached to getting up a chicken dinner for a big crowd, a lot more than the average man realizes—until he tries it.

The music that sounded from the forest of A. L. Booze near Hopkins, last Friday was sweeter to the listener than even the "Star Spangled Banner" or "Over There." The cause of this music was occasioned by a crowd of neighbors and friends of Aunt Sarah Tabors, who went into the forest with teams, axes and saws. The click, click, and buzz, buzz, never stopped until about seven cords of the nice dry wood was piled near the old lady's door. When we saw these men turning home, with empty sacks, and baskets, we knew they had thought of her other needs besides a warm fire; and from what the "Old Lady" told the writer, some of their purses were flatter, but their hearts were lighter when they perceived the joy they had wrought.

Several Pickering girls are trying to get some of the farmer boys to give a real old fashioned husking bee with cider and popcorn and dancing, and the boys agree if the girls promise the coveted kiss with each red ear of corn discovered.

Len Andrews of Hopkins, is happy over the result of his sale held last Thursday. He had counted on the total reaching between seven and eight thousand dollars but when Clerk Sheley turned over the books the total proved to be $9,100, and if the car had sold the grand total would have been an even ten thousand dollars. Len had good stuff, one mare bringing $300, another $256 and the others better prices than horses are generally bringing, while his hogs went out of sight and the white face cattle didn't hurt the average any. Col. Foreman was the chief auctioneer, being assisted by Col. Cummins, of Sheridan, and these men feel that they certainly got the high dollar for everything going thru the ring. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will go west soon and while they have not fully made up their minds, they will likely locate in California. They are splendid young people and it is with regret their friends and neighbors learn of their decision to leave here.

Frank DeWitt and Bob Poage of Hopkins, have traded properties, Bob getting the old Cowen home and five acres of ground at the east edge of Hopkins, and Frank the Poage property on the hill in the south part of town, Bob giving Frank $250 "to boot." Each of the families are now at home in their newly acquired property and so far neither regret the trade was made.

James Allison of Hopkins, recently received a message announcing the death of a sister who passed away at her home in Canada at the advanced age of 100 years and 9 months. This remarkable woman had always been a great worker and did lots of work in the garden the past summer, never being contented to remain idle. She was the mother of thirteen children, the oldest of these being nearly eighty years of age. Mr. Allison visited this sister some three years ago and says her mind was as bright and clear then as ever and remained so until the very day of her death when she gave up and said she was willing and ready to go, sending a message to the brother here asking him to meet her in heaven. Mr. Allison is nearly 90 years of age.

Edgar L. Hewett was visiting in Hopkins two days of the week with his sister, Miss Cassie Hewett. Mr. Hewett's home is in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and is president of the Archaeological Institute of America. He had recently been called to Washington on the war council, and stopped here for a short stay on his return trip. In his search for antiquities, he has visited all parts of the world and is a prominent as well as a very interesting man to meet and talk with.

Chas. Hall of Clearmont, was a Burlington Junction visitor yesterday afternoon, and he informs us that Dr. Hindman met with quite an accident on the main street there about 5 o'clock. The Dr. was driving a team, and in some way collided with an auto. The Dr. was thrown from the buggy onto the hard road and when help got to him he was unconscious, and Mr. Hall says when he left for the depot to take the train for home he was still unconscious and that the extent of his injuries had not been ascertained. The Dr. had been here to see a patient and left here about 5 o'clock.

L. L. Hart of Clearmont, has bought the Bush 80 that joined him on the southwest. This straightens out his farm and gives him about 275 acres all in a body and makes him one of the finest farms in this part of the country.

Jake Pruitt and family of Clearmont, left Monday morning for Tina, Mo., where they will make their home for the present.

Several of the neighbors of Mrs. Jesse Colter of Clearmont, whose husband went into the service after he had raised his crop, gathered together and went and shucked nearly all of the corn he had raised. Mrs. Colter, learning of their intentions, furnished dinner for them at the Everett Gray home.

Herbert Zerbst of Conception, met with quite an accident Tuesday evening while cutting wood at the home of John Walsh. In some way the ax, which was in the hands of Cornelius Brady, slipped striking his foot and inflicting a serious wound which necessitated several stitches.

Miss Frankie Morrissey of Conception received a letter this morning from her brother, Jack, who is in France, in which he stated that he considered himself very fortunate, as he had been in several of the battles and came out without a scratch.

An express package weighing forty pounds, was received Monday evening by T. E. Archer, living southwest of Conception, from his son, Thomas, who is stationed at West Point, Ky. The package contained two shells, one a four point seven, the other an American 75, which contained some shrapnel. Upon the arrival of this package at the depot, Marshal Purcell became very much excited and immediately telephoned to Mr. Archer informing him that the package appeared to be a very dangerous one and obtained his permission to take it and examine the contents. Using great care he proceeded to open the package and much to his surprise and disappointment found it to be perfectly harmless having been fired at the proving grounds at West Point. Mr. Archer very kindly left the shells at the Courier office in order that those who had never seen such missiles might have an opportunity to do so.

Ed Donnelly of Conception returned home Tuesday morning from Washington, D. C. Soon after being inducted into serivce of the United States he was sent to the Walter Reed hospital in that city where he remained until he was honorably discharged from the service.

Prior to the death of S. H. Rasco, of Barnard, who was buried a week ago last Sunday, there were five generations living in his family. He had nine children living, 32 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. His posterity numbered 79.

Geo. W. Cole of Barnard, traded his farm of 245 acres on which Warren Phelps now lives to A. M. Rasco Saturday, consideration, being $29,400, taking in the 78 acre farm of Rasco's at $11,060, possession to be given on March 1. Monday, R. E. Cook bought the 79 acres from Geo. W. Cole which he traded for Saturday, giving in exchange as part payment his 20 acre farm on which W. L. Gilbert now lives. The consideration for each farm per acre was $150. Possession will be given March 1. Cook will not move to his farm but will rent it.

"Red" Younger of Burlington Junction did some good work on the roads and streets the first of the week, dragging from the farm of his employer, J. W. Praiswater, to town, and then two blocks on Main street and on up to Mr. Praiswater's residence. He had a heavy drag with three big horses and his work showed that he knew how to put the surface of a road in good shape.

$15.00 a hundred for grass cattle sounds like a record price, and this was what B. B. Staples of Burlington Junction received for eleven young steers on the St. Louis market a few days ago. N. I. Staples had 60 grass steers on the same market that he received $12.50 a hundred for. He had owned these cattle but a short time and they put on over 200 pounds in weight and sold for about $2.50 more a hundred than he paid for them.

Murray E. Gilderbloom, better know to his boyhood friends in Burlington Junction as "Ed," visited at the home of John Vanderlinden and with old friends here this week. Ed was unfortunate in losing his wife last month, who died of the influenza, leaving three small sons, aged six, four and two years. Ed has been very successful since leaving here fifteen years ago, being employed for several years by the government as civil engineer. Later he promoted a new rail road in Colorado, but this work was stopped when war was declared. At present he is cashier and principal stock holder in a bank at Cope, Colo.

The Boy Scuots of Burlington Junction will establish permanent headquarters in the rooms now occupied by Dr. G. C. Trusty, as soon as the dentist moves to his new location. A rug, twenty chairs and a table are needed to furnish the rooms for the Scouts and it is requested that these be contributed by the people of the town. The Boy Scouts is one of the best organizations in Burlington Junction and supplying them with necessary furnishings for their rooms will be a profitable investment.

Whos in?

Oglesby & Kessler, who have been conducting the Corn Belt Cafe in Ravenwood for the past few months, have given up the work, the stock having been traded for residence in Maryville. The new owners of the business are George Aley and son, Ralph and the latter is in charge.

Harry Fryar of Ravenwood, sent home a couple of shells from the battle front and for several days they have been in the Gazette display window, as has also the Stars and Stripes, the paper issued by the Yanks in the war region. The shells attract the most attention, one being a three inch from the St. Mihiel region and the other probably a machine gun part from Verdun. They were mailed in France during October and never arrived until last Friday.

John Lowrance brought a wagon load of turkeys and chickens to Skidmore the first of the week for which he received $175 from a local dealer. Not so bad for one load of poultry.

Forbes Starr and Crit Richards of Parnell engaged in a corn "shucking" contest Monday of this week. They "shucked" one hour and fifteen minutes. When Forbes measured his corn he found he had even seventeen bushels, and Crit just three and one-half bushels less. Cri had no peg or gloves on, or he might have gained the day.

Roy Birkenholz of Parnell, is back from France, now being in one of the camps in Maryland. He was wounded in one of his ankles while on the firing line in France. He may be home to spend Christmas. Roy was in the thickest of the fight.

Horses are getting lower in price every day. A pair of fine young horses were sold here the first of the week for $160. Don't know whether because feed is so high at this season of the year or on account of the world war being almost over or because autos are taking their places. There is some reason but we do not know what it is says the Parnell Sentinel.

CARL A. WARREN DEAD

Former Resident Passes Away at Chamberlain, S. D.

Carl Warren, a former resident of this city, died yesterday morning at Chamberlain, S. D., after a week's illness of pneumonia and influenza. His mother, Mrs. Nettie Warren of Maryville was called to Chamberlain Tuesday night by her son's illness.

Mr. Warren leaves a wife and ten month's old baby, his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Brummit and Miss Ethel Warren of Maryville, and one brother, Clarence Warren, who is with the American army in France.

Clint Rinehart of Burlington Junction spent yesterday visiting in Maryville.

SKIDMORE MINISTER RESIGNS.

Rev. Arbutnnot, of M. E. Church, South Returns to Former Home.

Rev. D. H. Arbuthnot, who was assigned to the pastorate of the M. E. South church at Skidmore and at Centenary and New Hope by the last general conference of that denomination, handed in his resignation a few days ago and left for Louisiana, Mo., where he had been pastor before coming here.

This resignation severs his connection with the Missouri conference and he will probably not try to re-enter the ministry, especially of the South Methodist church.

His ambition is to go to Europe and assist in reconstruction work there, but whether or not he realizes this ambition yet remains to be seen.

Officials of the church have received word from the presiding elder that a man will be sent to minister to this field as soon as one can be secured for the place.

STRONG "outside connections" are fundamentally important to any bank that seeks to serve its community well. City terminals and markets must be kept in constant touch so that business men and farmers, shippers and manufacturers can cooperate to the best interests of themselves and their Government.

No financial institution in this community has more advantageous outside connections than we have in the numerous correspondents with which we transact our commercial business in the various large cities of this state and country.

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks young and old alike. In most cases, the victim is warned of the approaching danger. Nature fights back. Headache, indigestion, insomnia, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, pain in the loins and lower abdomen, difficulty in urinating, all are indications of trouble with the kidneys.

When such symptoms appear you will almost certainly find quick relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules.

This famous old remedy has stood the test for two hundred years in helping mankind to fight off disease. It is imported direct from the home laboratories in Holland, and may be had at almost every drug store. Your money promptly refunded if it does not relieve you. Be sure to get the genuine GOLD MEDAL Brand. In sealed packages three sizes.

Returns From St. Louis.

Dr. F. R. Anthony reutrned this morning from St. Louis, where he was called on account of the illness of his nephew, Cyrus Lippman, who is sick with influenza. The boy is now greatly improved.
